Homework Folder

Session
2025-2026

Dear Parents,

As we approach the summer vacation, we hope you are looking forward to enjoying a well-deserved break filled with relaxation, fun, and exploration. While the holiday season is a wonderful opportunity to unwind, it also provides a chance to engage in meaningful learning activities that can enrich your summer experience.

We encourage you to approach your holiday homework with curiosity and creativity. This is not just an extension of schoolwork but an opportunity to explore topics that interest you, develop new skills, and apply what you have learned in practical ways. Balance is key, so make sure to allocate time for both study and leisure. Remember, learning can be fun and rewarding!

Summer holidays, oh so bright,
A time for fun, a time for delight,
No school bells ringing, no homework stress,
Just freedom and fun, what a happiness!

Play outside, ride your bike,
Make new friends, and have a hike,
Read books, draw, and dance with glee,
Summer holidays, a time to be free!

So let's make the most of these sunny days,
And fill our hearts with joyous ways,
No worries, no cares, just fun and play,
Summer holidays, a happy stay!

Guidelines:

For Students:

1. Follow a routine: Wake up and sleep on time, have meals at regular hours.
2. Stay safe: Be cautious while playing outside, swimming, or engaging in activities.
3. Stay hydrated: Drink plenty of water, especially during hot weather.
4. Limit screen time: Balance screen time with outdoor activities, reading, and other hobbies.
5. Complete holiday homework: Manage time to finish assigned tasks.
6. Engage in productive activities: Pursue hobbies, learn new skills, or participate in summer camps.

For Parents:

1. Supervise and guide: Ensure children's safety and well-being.
2. Encourage balance: Balance structured activities with free time.
3. Monitor screen time: Set limits and encourage outdoor activities.
4. Support learning: Encourage reading, learning, and skill-building.
5. Plan family activities: Organize outings, picnics, or vacations.
6. Set boundaries: Establish rules and expectations.

Additional Tips:

1. Communicate: Discuss expectations and rules with each other.
2. Stay flexible: Be open to adjustments and changes.
3. Prioritize safety: Ensure children's safety and well-being.

Have fun: Enjoy quality time together!
